Re: Petition of BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. to Establish a Generic
Docket to Consider Amendments to Interconnection Agreements
Resulting from Changes of Law (Docket 2004-00427)

Dear Mr. Burford:

On March 4, 2005, AmeriMex Communications Corp. ("AmeriMex") filed an Emergency Petition in the above-referenced docket. AmeriMex subsequently withdrew this Emergency Petition on March 21, 2005. In its letter of withdrawal, AmeriMex noted that it had entered into a commercial agreement with BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth"), rendering the Emergency Petition moot. On March 30, 2005, the Commission ordered AmeriMex and BellSouth to explain why this commercial agreement should not be submitted to the Commission for approval.

AmeriMex has reviewed "Bellsouth Telecommunications, Inc.'s Brief in Response to the Commission's March 30, 2005 Order." AmeriMex supports and adopts this Brief, and will not be filing its own brief in this proceeding.

Please contact the undersigned should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Glenn Richards
Jarrett Taubman
Counsel for AmeriMex Communications
Corp.
